GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

1. The article and the reference are limited to 20,000- 22,000 characters with spaces.

2. Structure of the article:

    –   Author's name (s),
    –   place of employment (University, Faculty, Department) and the e-mail address of the author (s),
    –   title in Polish,
    –   title in English,
    –   keywords in Polish,
    –   keywords in English,
    –   JEL codes,
    –   the text of the article divided into: the introduction (justification of the subject, the purpose and the thematic scope of the article), the research results (divided into sections marked with subheadings) and the summary and conclusions,
    –   bibliography attached in alphabetical order,
        (Name I., Title, Publisher, Place and year of publication),
    –   summary in Polish,
    –   summary in English.

3. Detailed technical requirements:

    –   file format: .doc, .docx,
    –   basic text font of 12 pt. Times New Roman,
    –   affiliation, keywords and title in English 10 points,
    –   1.5 line spacing,
    –   bibliographic footnotes – Harvard Referencing [insert in text in square brackets: author's name, year of publication and page],
    –   tables and figures should be made in the same editor as the text of the article and locate as closest as possible to the reference, only in shades of gray, and should be submitted in a format that allows editing.

Detailed guidelines for Authors will be provided after a positive reviews and classification of a study to a particular scientific journal.

Please, send an article to the following e-mail: anna_wasilewska1@sggw.pl